Hendren Investments, LLC Chooses Local Construction Company to Build New Facility

Denver, CO -- August 12, 2005 -- dcb Construction Company, Inc., a locally owned and operated construction company since 1960, has been selected by Hendren Investments, LLC to design and build a 35,000 square foot office, warehouse and distribution facility to be located at 12150 E. 46th Avenue in Denver, Colorado. Construction on this site cast tilt-up project began August, 2005 with a completion date scheduled for January, 2006.

This new facility will house Atlantic West Flooring Distributors, Inc., a wholesale flooring distribution company that sells hard surface products to flooring companies throughout the Rocky Mountain Region, including New Mexico and Montana. Wood flooring is their primary corporate focus. Brady L.
